Growing Up . . . .

at Hobart High

Growing, growing — day by day, year by year — growing up and out the seams. That is what Hobart High School students are doing from the time they begin their careers as freshmen until they are seniors, nearly matured and ready for commencement to bigger and better things in a promising future.

Our school has been changing too. Since the time long ago in 1877 when the first part was built, it has continued to grow along with its students until today, with an enrollment of 1085, we can hear it creak with age and at the same time cry out for relief from its never-ending growing pains.

As surely as students will continue to grow and mature, Hobart High School will also need to grow accordingly. The time has come for bigger and better things in the way of a new school. We look forward to the coming years with the anticipation of the fulfillment of such plans. Until that day we must be patient with the growing process.

Let us pause for a look backward over another year in the history of that time worn but beloved edifice, Hobart High School, and at the same time review another year of growth in our own lives.

Growing Up . . . . and

The Methodist Annex, a scene of confusion each day, must be used by Mr. Stewart's government and economics classes. Rain or shine, sleet or snow, the seniors must attend classes there because of the over-crowded building, then trudge across the street—often late and sometimes cold and wet—to the main building.

Our cafeteria serves many purposes. When it is not being used for regular luncheons, it is necessary to use it for certain school activities, parent-teacher meetings, club parties, and even as a study hall.

Out The Seams

Our halls, crowded with students passing to and from classes, present many traffic problems. Most of them are too narrow, and congestion occurs in various places throughout the building every time the bell rings.

Eight biology classes like this one are held each day. Even though there has been an extra teacher added to instruct this course in the past two years, classes keep growing by leaps and bounds. Facilities are inadequate and space is all too limited for proper biology study and lab work.

But Work and Play The Room 111 is filled with busy typing students from zero hour until the end of the school day. While the typewriters are getting a work-out, many girls and boys learn an important and useful skill. Besides general manipulation of their machines, they find that it is necessary to be accurate at all times, to follow directions, and to use good judgment.

The learning privileges that high school students enjoy daily were extended to adults during the second semester. A wide variety of night classes enabled them to brush up on subjects that had become hazy or to learn more about the ones that seemed interesting. The response that was made to the adult education program was very satisfactory, with over one hundred enrolled the first year, and it is hoped that in the future the demand and the accommodations will be even greater.

Hobart way . . . . .

Barbara Burke and Bill Matan reigned as king and queen at the second annual school carnival this spring. The concessions provided many interesting possibilities for a good time. Style shows, a sponge throw, fortune telling, and "Club '55" were a few of the many activities.

The junior class party, "Moulin Rouge," provided an interesting and entertaining evening for many of the junior students. Roosevelt Gym was transformed into a small cafe complete with can-can girls and a "soda-bar" for the gay party.

With Old Friends and

This group of freshman students presents a familiar sight to many of us. New friendships and acquaintances are often made over an "after school coke," and conversation is usually directed to hashing over events of the school day.

Manfred Osterode (center), born in Tunbergo, Germany, came to Hobart High as a junior this year. He is shown here talking with Dewey Bland and Harry Todd, two of his many new friends.

New Faces . . . . .

No, this is not Grand Central Station . . . it's the senior locker room with its usual groups of old friends, who congregate to discuss "the latest."

The friendly greetings of Emil Henschel, long-time custodian at Hobart High School, will be a part of our many pleasant high school memories.

Our teachers have become our friends during our high school years, and some will continue to guide and teach students long after we are gone. Miss Gladys Anderson and Miss Lola Stewart are among faculty members who have been at Hobart High School for many years.

The rope necklace was a popular piece of jewelry this year, and almost every girl owned at least one pair. This is just another one of the fashions that has been brought back from the past to become popular again. Shown here are Sandra Ramsey, Judy Ferkinhoff, and Linda Zimmerman wearing their favorites.

Many extremes in hair styles were noted in Hobart High School this year. Girls wore their hair in lengths that ranged from the very short "DA" cut to long hair. The "crew cut" was still popular with the boys, and included a variation called the "flat top." Other boys chose to look shiekish in a long "DA" cut. At the same time they saved money on barber bills. Mary Cortese, Andy Sepke, John Malmquist, and Vivian Isakson show these different hair styles.

New Fads and Fashions

The long knee sock that are seen so frequently on college campuses were worn by many Hobart girls this year. This fad that has added a colorful note to school outfits, like most fads, was started by a small group of people. Many others took up the attractive idea, and soon it was a widespread fashion. Rene Distell, Karen Kienly, Sally Herrick, Janet Erwin, Betty Stephens, Mary Murray, Jackie Moon, Mary Lee Phillips, Jocelyn Hahn, and Arden Lee Campbell are shown modeling their knee socks.

Each school year has its distinctive fads and fashions that are adopted by the majority of students. Some of these remain for quite a while, others are only temporary. The changes in fads and fashions are outstanding memories of our high school days.

The Wright-Shannon parade was a long one, and as it traveled in the vicinity of the school, Tom and Carol, the winners, rode in a convertible where the students could view them.

All the candidates had many friends and admirers to back them strongly during this year's election campaign. This group met the night before the election to make final plans for Jim Freeland's campaign parade.

Purple Slate Victorious

Hobart High became the center of a gala and colorful campaign as preparations for the annual election of mayor and clerk-treasurer began. Candidates were Jim Freeland and Tom Wright for mayor and Jane Hawke and Carol Shannon for clerk-treasurer. Eye-catching posters, clever announcements, and a pre-election convo for the purpose of introducing the candidates all added to the excitement. The campaigning was climaxed by a wild parade which will probably bring back vivid memories to many, especially to those whose cars received dented fenders.

The 1954 Homecoming was prepared for with great anticipation and a mad combination of excited campaigning for queen, lawn displays by the various classes, and pep talks for the team.

The name of the queen was not disclosed to any one until the three final candidates were assembled for the crowning at half time. Mayor Tom Wright announced Barbara Kane to be the school's choice as Homecoming queen.

The girls were presented with red roses and they left the field with their escorts to view the game. Our boys were disappointed with a one-sided defeat, but the Edison team later went on to win the conference title.

Pretty Barbara Kane Reigns

Immediately following the crowning, Queen Barbara Kane and her runner-up, Dolly Sanak, with their escorts, Stewart Kraft and John Mosley walk from the field as the spectators get ready to see the second half of the Hobart-Edison game.

The Homecoming game which was originally scheduled against Griffith was postponed when Brickie Bowl was converted into a small ocean by a steady three day downpour. Students looked with awe at the waters that reached the top of the metal fence in front of the concrete bleachers. The football locker room was completely flooded, and a raft was used to rescue equipment.

Over Homecoming Festivities

The class of '57 took first place honors with their Homecoming display. Those who worked to make it a success—first row: Sue Miller, Janet Scott, David Mergl, Bess Larson, Nancy Osborn, and Chuck Hallas. Second row: Cleo Cope, Sue Mills, Carolyn Martin, Rosemarie Morganelli, and Don Koons. Standing: Ronnie Kelly and Alice Johnston.

The grand march was a highlight of the customary after-game dance. Leading the march are Queen Barbara Kane, and Bill Gravel, co-captain of the football team, followed by the other members of the court, and all students attending the dance.

The Four Sharps, a vocal group consisting of Sylvia Larson, Jackie Moon, Sharon Hanson, and Bess Larson added a pleasant bit of harmony when they sang in their "barber shop" style.

Another one of the top acts was Barbara Cisman who played her accordion. The instrumental solos, along with the many other fine acts, showed the various talents possessed by our students.

Hobart High Has Talent

Sally LePell, who has often presented her pantomime acts for the entertainment of high school groups, was one of the favorites at the Talent Convo.

Ray Daves and Louie Hill provided unique entertainment with their comedy act which combined singing and playing the guitar. They seemed to enjoy performing as much as the students enjoyed listening to them.

This exhibit of the various stages of development of a chick embryo won Eugene Reisinger a grand prize rating in the local science fair, held here early this spring.

Science Fair

Bruce Hunsicker won a grand prize at the local fair with his collection of sea shells, beautifully displayed. He has acquired many unique and interesting shells since he began his collection two years ago.

Bill Matan also received first place honors with his collection of many different kinds of semi-precious stones and minerals. His exhibit attracted the attention of many.

Tom Ehrhardt grasps the microphone as he prepares to give the morning announcements in his position as junior high principal.

Seniors Took Over

Senior Day was one of the outstanding activities of the school year. On that day members of the senior class took over the teaching and administrative positions, along with other tasks that make the school run smoothly. These seniors made up the administrative group and were responsible for the more important guidance activities of the day. They were chosen by the student council, the organization that sponsors Senior Day.

These students acted as school board members on Senior Day. Standing, left to right: Jim Sébring, Jack Walker, Boh Shone. Seated: Jim Freeland, acting supt. of schools; Minnie Sue French and Douglas La Barr with back to camera. They are pointing out the proposed new school bus routes which were discussed at their meeting.

It was a life of "rest and relaxation" for these teachers while the students took over their various classes on Senior Day. Though many students might be surprised to hear it, this is a very rare scene in the teachers' room during the day.

the School for a Day

Tom Wright, Dick Netzhhammer, and Jack Wuletich did an excellent job of taking care of those people who didn't take Senior Day quite as seriously as they should have. They took the places of high school principal, director of guidance, and dean of boys.

"The Life of a Mexican Bean Beetle" might well be the topic of a discussion led by Barbara Klindt, biology teacher.

Activities

One can hardly deny that the classroom and its functions are the nuclei of any school. Yet it is evident that the many other activities of a high school are the sustaining factors which strike a comparatively equal balance between the humdrum and the lively. The old adage about Jack — all work, no play, and dullness — cannot be applied to Hobart High. A student may choose the band, the choir, the convos, the dances, the athletics, and the many, many clubs. Let him combine these in a well-balanced manner so that the experiences he derives from them will add an inch or more to his mental and physical stature.

A Cappella Choir

The largest A Cappella choir Hobart has ever had was this year under the direction of Mr. Gene Simons, who came to us from Delphi, Indiana. He received degrees in music from Murray State Teacher's College, in Murray, Kentucky, and from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, Michigan. During his teaching career he has directed several top contest vocal ensembles. Mr. Simons has done equally well at Hobart, sending three ensembles to the regional contest and one to state in Indianapolis where they received high honors.

The choir, with a community chorus, again presented George F. Handel's great "Messiah" this past holiday season. The accomplished works of Handel provided an inspirational flavor for the opening of the Christmas season.

Other performances by the choir were many convocations, the spring concert and the spring tour. They were invited to sing for Indiana State Teacher's College in Terre Haute, Indiana and gave other performances at various points along the way. The tour provided an exciting finale for a successful year.

SAXOPHONES

Hobart High School

The Hobart High School Concert Band under the direction of Mr. Albert Leach entertained many people with fine programs this year.

Members of the band participated in a busy season of programs and contests. The year started off with the Fall Pop concert and the Christmas concert. Besides practicing for those appearances, student bandmen had the contests to think about and practice for. "It pays to practice!" may well be the slogan of the members of the band who participated in the state solo and ensemble contest, however, for of the 17 persons who went down state eight received medals for first; seven for second; and two for third place.

FLUTES AND BASSOONS

CLARINETS

BASSES AND PERCUSSION

Concert Band

The highlight of the band year always proves to be the annual spring tour. Bright and early on the morning of April 26, members of the band were standing in front of school anxiously awaiting the word of Mr. Leach that would start them on their way. The buses carried the band about 1,400 miles that week on a tour that consisted of seeing and playing at such places as Cleveland, New York, and Detroit. While in Canada of course, they visited Niagara Falls and probably wished that the tour was a little bit longer.

Their spring concert in May was their final production of the year.

CORNETS

FRENCHHORNS, BARI- TONES, TROMBONES

Forming the traditional "H" on our home field is only one of the many formations perfected by the marching band each year. Much tedious work went into the Homecoming half-time program as the Halloween Show, the last of the season, was presented in honor of Homecoming Queen, Barbara Kane.

Hobart High School Marching Band

This year the marching band's half-time football programs were few, as the flood ravaged the field making practice impossible. Nevertheless, three fine and entertaining programs were prepared, Community Singing, the Halloween Show, and the American Cowboy Show. Due to the wet fields, the latter was not presented.

The marching band traveled to Purdue University to participate in the First Annual High School Band Day. Teaming up with 82 bands from all over Indiana, the Hobart marching band took part in providing half-time entertainment at the Purdue-Duke game. The combined bands in three formations played various selections including the Purdue school song.

Fred Libkie, drum major, shows us how it's done, as he leads the band through one of their routines. Fred did a great job this year, and his superb half-time performances were enjoyed by all.

This year the Student Council worked hard on many profitable projects. In the fall, members were appointed to place instructions for fire drills in each room in the building. They appointed monitors to check congested areas during fire drills, and also a committee to paint and refill the fire extinguishers.

They sponsored a clean-up campaign to give our school a new face. Walls were washed and painted by student volunteers, the lawns were cleaned up, and many other projects were completed to improve the looks of the school.

The council sponsored the annual Talent convocation this spring, with many student acts performing for the enjoyment of the whole student body.

Also in the spring they introduced to the students plans for a Code of Ethics at Hobart High. It was brought up in home-rooms and discussed by council representatives. After considerable thought and suggestions we decided to write a code of our own, using some of the points which have been used successfully by several high schools in the area.

Student Council

National Honor Society

The fall induction of the National Honor Society this year included fourteen proud and happy seniors whose qualities of leadership, scholarship, character, and service were honored.

The society is a group which has undertaken many projects this year. They tabulated and published the honor roll standings for each six weeks' grading period. They sponsored a chili supper for students who had maintained a 2.5 average for the first semester. They also met with guidance directors to help counsel students who seemed to be having difficulty with their grades.

Future Teachers of America

The distinction of being one of the most active clubs in school could easily be held by F.T.A. The members gain new teaching experience as they are excused to teach classes in the various grade schools.

While reading to these first graders, Janet Carlson is creating friendly and cooperative attitudes among them, a goal of each F.T.A. member. With this accomplished, discipline is usually a small matter and teaching can then be a rewarding experience.

Speech Club

Highlighting this year's activities was the annual trip to Purdue for two days of intense debating. Such issues as congressional investigations took much research as illustrated by Arden Campbell, Myrna Smith, Mary Lee Phillips, Bonnie Scharbach, and Rene Distell.

Usher Club

Those helpful guys you see at every convo and ball game, always ready to find you a seat, are none other than members of the Ushers Club. Pausing for a moment on a busy afternoon are Herb Peterson, Pete Bessigano, Fred Kyle, Dave Mergl, Tom Mole, Ken Schroeder, Jon Ewigleben, and Jack Caldwell.

Librarians

Making decorations and bookmarkers for the library is only one of the many jobs the librarians accomplish. They keep the books in good order, check them out and take care of the magazines and papers. All is not work for these charming girls, however, for many pleasant afternoons of fun and talk are passed away while working. Maybe Janet Schmelter, Barbara Cisman, Barbara Burke, and Rita Schultz are thinking about a party that the club will be having soon.

Jack Walker watches intently to make sure Douglas LaBarr measures exactly the right amount to insure the success of this experiment. Although this test is an interesting one, most students bear other opinions whenever noticeable odors prevail in the vicinity of room 208. Wonder why??!!

"Looking for something, Eugene?" could easily be the query of any student who drops into room 204 after school, as an exhibit on chick embryology for the Science Fair is being prepared by Eugene Reisinger. This is only one of the fine projects upon which many hours were spent.

Science

Barbara Klindt eagerly watches as Vivian Isakson and Dolly Sanak make adjustments on the darkroom equipment they will use in making an enlargement of their print. Good luck, girls!

BI-PHY-CHEM CLUB

Of the various clubs, perhaps those dealing with science give a student the best opportunity to display hidden talents through the combination of a creative mind and hours of hard work.

Of course, as all work and no play made Jack a dull boy, so science would be dull without varied activities, one of these being a fascinating hypnotism demonstration by Mr. Moody. Films on minerals, inventions, and other scientific topics are also greatly enjoyed.

CAMERA CLUB

As the year flies by, Hobart High's 'shutterbugs' become busier and busier as yearbook deadlines loom ahead. Taking pictures for the yearbook is no easy task as so often each is not only taken but often must be taken over. They always come through with flying colors, though, and may we say "Hats off" to each photographer who helped the yearbook staff in making a successful annual.

Audio-Visual

The Audio-Visual club certainly has a job on its hands keeping all the high school classes supplied with movies. The boys are kept busy showing movies in classes, scheduling projectors, ordering films, and fixing any films that might have been broken while they were being shown.

Here we see Chuck Hallas checking over a projector to be sure that it will be in good running condition whenever it is needed.

Latin Club

Studying the background, social life, and other aspects of the Roman Empire was one of the club's interesting activities. A bit more on the humorous side was a pantomimed football game performed by the members for the Latin classes, with Caesar's forces opposing Pompey's men. Carrying through a Roman theme, the annual Christmas Party was a gay affair.

Spanish Club

Beautiful señoritas . . . colorful swinging skirts . . . daring bull fighters . . . Yes, Spain is a romantic sounding place and the members of the Spanish club always have an enjoyable evening at their club meetings, seeing movies, playing games, and talking about the beautiful land. Who knows — maybe someday one of them may be taking an exciting trip to Spain.

Arranging a colorful bulletin board display are three advanced Spanish students, Alice Cogley, Regina Evans, and Jackie Peterson.

"Twinkle, twinkle, little star," and how they did as the girls finished transforming the gym into a winter wonderland for the memorable evening. Carol Shannon, Gayle Huminsky, Eleanor Howell, Alberta Varga, Donna Shannon, Eleanor Zunich, and Joann Cicillian are but a few who worked so hard on both semi-formals.

Buzz Books, a clever idea of the Debuttees, were a big help when looking for telephone numbers or addresses of students and teachers. Arranging a committee meeting for one of the Girls' Clubs' functions are Janet Schmelter, Darlene Fiorantin, and Pat Bielewicz.

Rosalind Boughamer, Vivian Isakson, Carmen Montes, Mary Lee Phillips, Donna Shannon, Jocelyn Hahn, Alberta Varga, Jennie Speer, Shirley Choisser, Gloria Bowman, Pat Mills, Barbara Chirila, and Arden Campbell modeled the latest spring styles at the Mother and Daughter Tea and Style Show.

Debuttees

Taking charge of all charity drives was only one of the functions sponsored by the Debuttees. Highlighting the year's activities, however, were the semi-formals, two being held due to increased membership.

Held on the first day of spring, Carnation Day once more proved to be a beautiful sight as nearly every lapel displayed one of the various colored flowers. A successful first, the Mother and Daughter Tea and Style Show was enthusiastically received as the Debs modeled the newest spring fashions.

Convenient to students and teachers alike, are the Buzz Books, another of the projects sponsored throughout the year by Debuttees.

F. B. L. A.

As students' interests develop, various clubs are organized, a new one this year being the Future Business Leaders of America. The main purpose of this club is to acquaint its members with the principles of the business world. Highlighting this year's activities was the convention held on Northwestern University's campus.

Dennis Comer and Frances Mazepa are signing the National Future Business Leaders of America Charter at the formal initiation held in the school library.

Art Club

This club was newly organized this year for the purpose of offering an opportunity to engage in art activities for those students interested. Oil paintings, interior designing, cartooning, and ceramics were only a few of the many aspects of art taken up this year.

Bertha Powell, Jim Topping, and Betty Moss agree that making cufflinks is not only an enjoyable pastime but also a useful one.

F. H. A.

The role of wife and mother which each girl will someday portray, is the groundwork for activities of the Future Homemakers of America. By friendly discussion, the members attempt to acquaint themselves with the homemakers' various problems. The main objective of the club, though, is for each girl to start a very useful and worthwhile project, her hope chest.

Busily working on different phases of their projects are Ruth Pinkerton, Janet Carlson, Angeline Rocoff, Nancy Zakzewski, and Doris Snyder, officers of the F.H.A.

It wasn't very often that Douglas LaBarr, editor-in-chief, and Jack Walker, business manager, got together to check on details of the yearbook, so trying to get this picture taken proved to be quite a task.

From September to May

"Oh I'll never get my section done." "If I could only think of something to write!" "Where are all the pictures I scheduled last week?" These are only a few of the moans and groans that can be heard coming from room 302, especially when deadline time is drawing near.

Yearbook work begins in the early summer when the editor-in-chief goes to Bloomington to the High School Journalism Institute to begin planning the yearbook for the fall. This year while Doug LaBarr was down at I.U. attending the Institute, he received a scholarship, valued at $150 a year, which will assist him in attending Indiana next year. The scholarship is awarded on the basis of outstanding work done at the Institute in planning a yearbook or newspaper.

to Create Your Memories

In September when the "dummy" is made and everything is all set, all the editors under Doug begin work on their sections. First, all the necessary pictures are taken and then all the copy for them is written. Of course everything doesn't run that smoothly and when pictures have to be taken over and over again and when one has to spend an hour writing 15 words of copy, all sorts of unpleasant words can be heard coming from the lips of the editors.

Along with the hard work and little unpleasanties goes a lot of fun, however, and the night of the yearbook dance there is a little glow of pride around each person that worked on the staff. One whole year of work really pays off when we see the final end of our work.

ART EDITORS—Mary Jane Kurth, Beverly Mehalic, Ray Gee. Not shown: Rose Lee Ewigleben, Sharon Hanson.

NEWS BUREAU — Peter Bessigano and Jim Sebring. As News Bureau editor Jim was one of the busiest people in the whole school as he wrote news for the Hobart Gazette, the Hobart Herald and the Gary Post-Tribune.

Ho-Hi Life Brings You

Every three weeks Room 302 is thrown into a flurry of activity as the Ho-Hi Life staff flies about their varied duties of producing another paper.

With assignments made by the editors, they are off again! A busy whirl of interviews, research, trips to town, writing, revising, typing, planning pages and writing headlines follows. There are pictures to take and get off to the engravers, captions to write and dummies to draw.

SECOND SEMESTER REPORTERS — Seated: Clarice Ferman, Jim Byrd. Standing: Bill Ledyard, Audrey Ferman, Jerry Hahney, Gerald Cooley.

News, Views and Features

Then come those daily trips to Glen Park with copy and pictures and the return trips to bring back the type. Consultations with the print shop follow right up until the big press starts to roll. Then those stacks of inky papers are rushed from the basement up to the third floor to be folded, counted and handed out to you.

The advanced staff, meanwhile, is busy on another paper for three weeks later.

SECOND SEMESTER REPORTERS — Seated: Sharon Hanson, Carol Piasky, Bonnie Scharbach. Standing: Eugene Hopkins, Marion Smith, Mike Brown.

PRINT SHOP — Mr. Biller, John Mosley, Terry Bogan, Joe Kovel, Cary Kranz, Frank Ross.

Sports

With Hobart High School's ever growing student body there has to come accompanying development in other areas — the faculty is being increased, more classes scheduled, new subjects added, and the sports department expanded, all this in spite of a growing lack of facilities.

One evidence of a growth in sports was this year's intramural program, of which so many students took advantage. Every morning and noon hour tiny Roosevelt gym echoed to the voices of sports-loving teenagers enjoying themselves. And then it was announced that next year Hobart teams would no longer participate in the Calumet Conference, an announcement which many had anticipated and which led to many discussions, pro and con, on the wisdom of such a step.

The hue and cry for organized baseball at Hobart was taken up by many students. The administration complied. No doubt about it, sportwise Hobart High has really grown — in fact outgrown, in many ways, its space, facilities and equipment.

First Row: Jack Walker, manager, Dick Gross, Bob Sosa, Ray Marconi, Bill Matan, Bob Davis, Dick Netzhammer, Jack Greene, John Overdeck, Bill Ledyard, manager. ## Brickies Win 7—Lose 3

As summer came to an end, Hobart's football men received their season's greetings from Coach Deal. He informed them that practice started August 15, and they should get into condition. Out they came, practiced twice a day, and before they knew it their first game was here.

The Brickies traveled to Whiting, played in a very strong wind, and came out on the losing end (13-0). However, it didn't take long for the Deal-men to recover, for the following week they went on to down East Gary 32-0. Now that the old win spirit was really in them, they dropped Lowell 34-0.

Coach Deal put them through rugged paces for the Valparaiso game, and Hobart won 26-6. Our team then traveled to Crown Point and met the Bulldogs on their home turf, defeating them with a score of 19-0. Next in Hobart's line of conflict was Griffith, but Old Man Weather reared his ugly head and caused a week of rain to fall in the Calumet area, leaving our football field and dressing rooms under four feet of water. As the water receded, the Brickies gained momentum and came swimming through to down Griffith 25-6.

Now sporting a five game winning streak, we met Merrillville in, as always, a hard, tough fight and emerged the victors with a final score of 13-0. Next was Gary Edison, a test for the Calumet Conference championship. Well there isn't much you can say except, as Coach Deal stated, "The boys just let down and we went down 30-0. The team tried to shake it off but again they fell after a hard fight with Gary Roosevelt, 21-14. The Brickies closed out their season against Bloomington and won 19-7, ending a winning season with seven victories and three defeats.

Outstanding player for the '54-'55 squad was half-back Bill Gravel, who passed, ran, and place kicked his way through opposing teams to score a total of 130 points for the season. Bill was, once again, placed on the conference all star team along with outstanding tackle and lineman, Joe Kovel.

Others who came in the scoring column were Ray Marconi with 18 points, Sonny Pavel with 12, Bob Sosa also with 12, and Dale Hatten with 6. Whitey Malmquist was always there to kick us out of trouble when we needed his help.

in 1954 Football Season

Hohart's boy, Marconi, is brought to ground as Brickies and Panthers look on. Identified players are Joe Kovel (76), Bob Manwaring (40), Fritz Ruchti (32), and Dave Clemens (53).

A punt return brought to an end in the Merrillville-Hobart game. Here linebacker Hatten charges in as ball carrier is brought to rest. Hobart's Goliath of the team, big Russell Garriott (30), stands in readiness to back up anything the Brickies have not already accomplished.

Once again a now famous Freeland to Gravel pass is completed for needed yardage in the Hobart vs. Merrillville game.

RUGGED SCHEDULE AHEAD

"In 1955 Hobart High School will be playing its toughest football schedule in its history. If Hobart should be on the winning end of this schedule, we could claim the title to the mythical state championship. Newcomers to Hobart's schedule this year are Emerson of Gary, East Chicago Roosevelt, Hammond Noll, and Hammond Morton. (Emerson and Roosevelt are always in the running for the state championship.)

"Hobart opens its season next year with the mythical state champions, Whiting. Our boys have played championship football for the past five years and we expect to remain on the winning side of the ledger. This "winning" can only be done by playing one game at a time and concentrating as each week passes. If our boys remember that it's not the size of the dog that's in the fight that counts, but the size of the fight that's in the dog, we will continue to be a winning football team.

"Our country is based upon the spirit of competition. Competition exists only because of each individual's desire to win. There is no such thing as a person wanting to lose. The will to win is one of the basic desires of mankind. With this will we can be a championship football team. Our goal next year is for a bigger, better, harder hitting football team than Hobart has ever had in its entire history. WE WILL WIN!!!"

Coach Russell Deal

Another Pirate bites the sod as Gravel of Hobart tries to put on the brakes. Identified in this maze of players are Gravel (64) and outstanding lineman, Joe Kovel (hand on ball carriers helmet).

"Go...

...Go!"

Coming in on a wing and prayer should be the word for this perfect two point landing displayed by Ray Marconi. Watching and making sure Ray doesn't get hurt is Bob Manwaring.

Will Dave get it? Only Hobart-Merrillville fans will be able to tell. Another high point in the game as Jack Greene pitches out to Dave Clemens.

Varsity Basketball

The old adage that experience is never easily gained was well exemplified by the 1954-55 edition of the Hobart High School basketball team. Brickie hardwood men squabbled, fought, and literally kicked their way through a rugged 20 game schedule which ended with Hobart's boosters possessing a 2-18 won-lost record.

Clearing the smoke away from the season's losing battles one could condemn the Hobart netmen's season as a total loss. However, aside from the cold statistical view, Hobart's seemingly hapless basketeers gained much needed experience throughout the season — a beneficial point not to be neglected. This well earned and sorely gained element will bear ripe fruit when next year's squad takes the floor.

Boasting only two seniors, seven experienced juniors and one sophomore, Hobart netmen gallantly struck out on their twenty game jaunt with a 49-60 opening defeat at the hands of the Wheeler Bearcats. High points of the season were reached when, to the fans' delight, Hobart proudly clobbered East Gary and Portage 60-57 and 74-73 respectively.

Up, up and up goes Stewart Kraft (30) amid foes, grasping for the rebounding ball, as John Malmquist (34) stands by to help.

Mid-game glance catches Jim Vanderplough (33), John Malmquist (34), and Jim Moody (22) dazedly watching the flight of the not visible ball.

Reserve Basketball

Hobart High School's 1954-55 reserve basketball team traveled through an 18 game schedule and emerged possessing a 8-10 won-lost record.

The reserve hardwood men initiated the season rightly with a 46-21 opening rout of Wheeler. Tougher competition found the team with a string of five unbroken defeats resulting. Bouncing back quickly Hobart's younger set trounced Crown Point 33-24 and proceeded to knock off three other opponents for a four game streak. An almost even succession of win one and lose one continued until the season closed.

First Row: Bill Ledyard, reserve statistician; Bill Sommers, varsity statistician; Dave McAfee, reserve manager; Pete Rodriguez, Dick Gross, Richard Berg, varsity manager; and Jim Helm, varsity statistician.

Hobart's John (Whitey) Malmquist (34) is bombarded by opponents as he gets off a one-handed jump shot in the Horace Mann game.

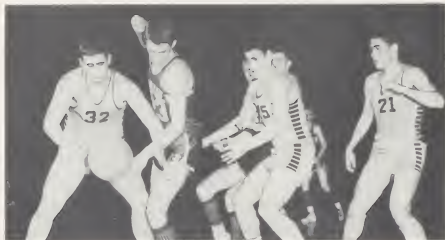

Up with the pack goes Hobart's Jim Moody (22) as other Brickie netmen Stewart Kraft (30), Dave Wilson (25), and Danny Beres (24) ready themselves against Chesterton.

Up for a jump shot goes Hobart's John Malmquist (34) as a swarm of Lew Wallace foes combine their efforts while trying to stop him.

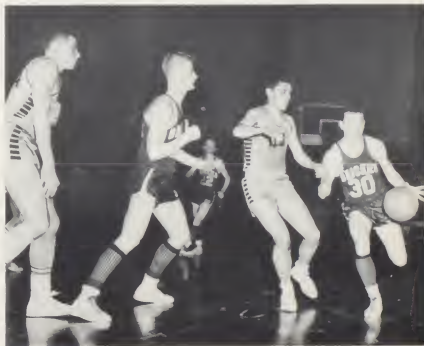

Eyes and faces reveal concentrated effort while Brickie John Wilson (23) attempts to nab the fleeting Lew Wallace ball in the sectional game. Jim Moody (22) watches the action from his backcourt position.

1955 Track Prospectus

The outlook for the 1955 track season of the Rambling Brickies appears very bright despite the fact that Coach Frank Kurth, completing his 15th season as track coach of the Ho-Hi thinclad squad, has lined up the toughest schedule of major track and field competition to be found in the state.

Their indoor schedule sends the trackmen against Hammond, Culver Military Academy, the Crown Point Invitational Meet and the Hoosier Relays at Indiana University fieldhouse, which is the largest high school meet in the country with over 800 athletes taking part.

Beginning in early April, the Brickies were called upon to face the following outdoor schedule: Hammond Clark, Hammond Tech, East Chicago Roosevelt, "Little 5" Meet, Delphi Relays, Goshen Relays, Logansport Relays, Valparaiso, Gary Roosevelt (1954 State Champions), Froebel, Calumet Conference, Sectional, Regional and State Meets.

Planning for another successful season, such as was celebrated in 1954 when the Brickies placed 11th in the final state meet among the 556 teams that entered sectionals, are many returning major letter winners. These lads include the following:

Stewart Kraft, Russell Garriott, Tom Weakland, Dave Clemens, Jim Freeland, Tim Wood, Chuck Hallas, John Malmquist, Emmett Dorsey, Frank Ross, Ronald Miles, Gerald Reese and Bob Houston. Also high on the list of hopefuls of Coach Kurth are Ted Talian, Frank Thomas, George Swetkey, Wayne Cardwell, Fritz Rutchi, Dick Netzhammer, Bob Marszalek, Alan Addison, Louis Houston, Lewis Hill, Dan Beres, Bob Millus, Bill Sommers, Jim Douglas, Manfred Oesterode, Pete Scofield, John Overdeck, Bob Gravel, Tom Welch, Jim Fahey, Scott Wilson, Gilbert Tarbutton and Bob Albers.

With several outstanding performers for each event, the Brickie spike-shoe athletes hope to capture their share of top individual and meet honors. Two meet records they hope to retain are championships in Little "5" (15th) and Calumet Conference (8th) successive years.

NOTE--

The oldest athletic activity on the high school athletic program in Hobart is that of the track and field sport. Many fine athletes have represented Hobart during these past decades in the record books. This year will conclude the 15th for Coach Frank Kurth as Brickie track mentor. All of the above records represent the efforts of athletes during his 15 year tenure. Ray Cizek, Carl Shield and Jim Johnston won state championships.

In the 100 yard dash, it's Stewart Kraft taking second place, following him is Bob Marszalek.

Going up and over the pole vault bar is Dave Clemens, who vaulted 10 feet 6 inches in the Little Five Meet to take first place.

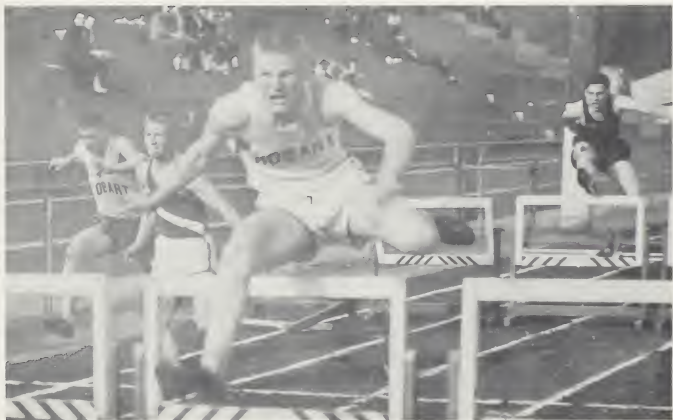

Russ Garriott, giant Brickie weight tosser, put the shot 54 feet 11 $\frac{3}{4}$  inches in the Little Five Meet, missing Carl Shield's record as a junior of 55 feet by  $\frac{1}{4}$  of an inch. Russ has set his goal at 56 feet and hopes to reach it by the end of this track season.

It's Tim Wood leading the pack in the East Chicago-Hobart meet. Close behind him is Danny Beres to take second place.

At Valpo, it is Tom Weakland coming down the gravel path to see how far he can go in the broadjump.

John Malmquist, leading the pack, clears the high hurdles in 15.8 seconds, to set a new record for the Little Five Meet.

Clearing the low hurdles is Frank Ross. Close beside him are two Valpo hurdlers.

Stewart Kraft, Tim Wood, Ted Talian, Danny Beres, Jay Baron, Coach Kurth, Tom Weakland, Jack Jablonski, John Mosley.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 1954 CROSS COUNTRY SEASON

"Without a doubt, the 1954 cross country harriers will go into the record books as the best squad of hill and dalers to represent Hobart in this activity over the past fifteen seasons." So states Coach Frank Kurth who has handled the teams over this period of years.

Beginning their workouts in mid August, a squad of thirty candidates answered the call. Coach Kurth outlined the work program in which he hoped the athletes would reach their peak by sectional time and championship hopes.

The squad raced through their first five meets without a miss before meeting their first loss of the season in their own big Invitational Meet which is billed as the oldest and largest event of its kind in the state.

Placing fifth in the twenty-four team field that entered the Hobart Invitational, the Brickies picked up needed experience and confidence to complete the season in grand style. Bloomington, making a 200 mile trip for the Brickie Meet, captured top honors.

Next followed the 8th Annual Calumet Conference Meet. The Brickie gallopers responded with a record performance of 20 points for low score and their eighth successive CC Championship.

The meet that Coach Kurth had pointed the squad for all season was next, the IHSAA sectional contest. To the amazement of all concerned, the Brickies raced their opponents beyond all expectations, capturing first place with a team record low of 30 points and placing its five team members in the first ten finishers in a field of 165 contestants and 24 teams. Brickie individuals making the historic record were John Mosley, 2; Ted Talian, 3; Tim Wood, 6; Jack Jablonski, 9; and Stewart Kraft, 10. The championship was the fourth for Hobart in the eight year period. Hobart's other champions won in 1947, 1948, and 1950.

For a warmup before the state championship meet, the harriers journeyed to Culver Military Academy and defeated the Cadets and Delphi in a triangular meet.

Saturday, October 30, the best 23 teams in the state lined up in Indianapolis for the state championship run. The Brickies met the test with a third place finish in a tie with Marion on 143 points. Shortridge was the winner with 80 points and Anderson second with 120. Mosley was 8th, Talian 18th, Wood 34th, Kraft 36th and Beres 47th to make up the team score.

Major awards went to Mosley, Wood, Talian, Kraft, Jablonski, Weakland, Beres and Franklin Thomas. Jay Baron was the manager.

"Go, Go, Boys"

Three of Hobart's top men lead the pack nearing the half way mark on the Cressmore Country Club. Left to right are John Mosley, Tom Weakland, and Tim Wood.

The Hobart Harriers are off and running in their attempt to win the Eighth Annual Calumet Conference Championship title.

Our varsity cheerleaders who led the crowd in the noise-making while the team scored were Barbara Cisman, Carol Skudlark, Barbara Kane, Betty Spakowski, and Minnie French.

Boosting Our Brickies

The reserve cheerleaders who helped make their games lively and gay were Rosemary Skees, Geraldine Kopko, Judy Mohrs, Karen Skudlark, and Judy Sotak.

The head Boosters, who along with the club members, supplied the cheering, sportsmanship, and school spirit at our games were Lois Erwin, Eleanor Zurich, Cleo Cope, and Charlene O'Connor.

..The winning team in boys intramural basketball this year was a group of seniors called the Let Me Go Lovers. Kneeling are Earl Hill, Tom Partin, and Bill Gravel. Standing, Jim Campbell, Dave Henley, and Dale Hatten.

Intramural Sports

Fred Kyle leaps into the air to capture the ball as Paul Adams and Bill Mynatt reach vainly upward.

Girls' basketball was one of the most popular sports in their noon intramural program with deck tennis another top favorite. Janet Scott shoots from close in as Myrna Eikenhary tries desperately to prevent the basket.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association is ever increasing in popularity at Hobart High. Each year sees more girls trying to join and each year many are put on a waiting list because of the large membership. The club has grown so much in the past two years that there are now two clubs instead of one.

The purpose of the G.A.A. is to interest more girls in sports, which it has successfully done. The girls enjoy participating in sports because at the end of the year they are given awards for points they have accumulated. It is the goal of the club to build a more extensive program and to let all participate.

Mary Beth Stonebraker gets ready to skim the net as her teammates watch. Deck tennis is just one of many activities that the girls take part in with fun and enthusiasm.

G.A.A. members, sit on the floor of the gym, as roll is taken. The clubs meet Tuesday of alternate weeks.

Gym Classes

The girls' gym classes are even more over crowded this year than in the past, but even so, Mrs. Klingberg manages to set up an extensive athletic program for the girls. Included in this program are deck tennis, volley ball, calisthenics, basketball, track, and softball. Of all the sports, basketball seems to be the favorite.

One of the most popular sports in Mrs. Klingberg's classes is basketball, as Helen Thyen shows here by taking a shot for her team.

Carmen Montes hits one straight away, good for a base in a girls' softball game. Spring weather brings out the gym classes for their share of that long-awaited sunshine.

A photographic catastrophe — but we needed something to fill this space. Some one — unknown — takes the high jump too fast for a slow camera.

People

America is called the boiling pot of nations. In the same vein a high school may be termed a boiling pot of humanity on a small but important scale. All types of persons, both students and teachers, are the ingredients which bubble in the cauldron. Fat and thin, tall and short, introverted and extroverted, merry and moody,—each is a striking individual, yet an integral part of the complicated mass.

Along with the physical growth that naturally attends a teenager's years in high school, it is inevitable that a mental growth of a sort, either positive or negative, will result. The people with whom we have worked and played this year have played a tremendous part—for good or ill—in the growth and maturing of our personalities.

Hobart

Mr. Arlie Kerr, new superintendent of Hobart city schools, graduated from Walnut Grove High School in Hamilton County, Indiana. After receiving his bachelor of science degree in Education at Ball State Teachers College in 1926, he went on to receive his master's degree at Indiana University in 1932. Since that time he has taken additional graduate work at Purdue University.

This year Mr. Kerr has attempted to work out, with the administration and other officials, an administrative handbook governing the policies of the Board of Trustees of the Hobart schools. Also, he has written up the results of a survey taken last year of the school system. Mr. Kerr hopes to see, within the next few years, all the students adequately housed in modern classrooms and at the same time to keep and further improve the high standards of work and instruction.

BOARD OF EDUCATION — Joyce Muir, secretary to superintendent; Donald Sporre, secretary of board; William Rippe, treasurer of board; John Treanor, president of board; Walter Heidenreich, member of board; Alice Hamilton, member of board; Arley G. Kerr, superintendent.

City Schools

With the great increase of enrollment in recent school years, many problems have had to be faced by the administration. The attendance at the convocations, the crowded classrooms, and the small gymnasium all show the need of a new high school building. After much discussion the proposed date was set for 1958. With these main problems, smaller ones developed. Mr. Moody states that the worst of these is the disrupting of classes, and he adds that "without the patience and cooperation of the teachers, the work of administration here would be almost too difficult for anyone."

Hobart High School

"I enjoy my profession because the public school is free. Its doors are open to all the people, regardless of wealth, birth, or social background. The public school is the unifying force in America. It makes our people one. No other institution touches the life of every citizen.

"In 20 years I have found young boys and girls becoming more intelligent, better educated, and in general, better citizens.

"My deep regret is that the public is sometimes slow in appreciating its schools and what they COULD do for youth. America is and will continue to be only as strong as its school systems — or as weak"

PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE—Shirley Rampke, financial sec-retary; Mary Broda, assistant bookkeeper; Marian Wesley, secretary-registrar.

DOROTHY THOMPSON
VICE PRINCIPAL

The Hobart High School Guidance Department includes all the Hobart High School administrative offices and all the Hobart High School teachers. They are concerned with each pupil and all of his or her problems: (a) orientation and school adjustment, (b) discipline, and attendance, (c) choosing, locating, and qualifying for a vocation, (d) selecting a college, scholarships, financial aid, etc., (e) right thinking on personal problems.

MARION BAILEY
GUIDANCE DIRECTOR

The most serious problem is not enough counselors and space for them to work. We should have a minimum of one full time counselor for each 200 pupils. We have the equivalent of two counselors for 1,075 pupils.

In a building, which was built for about 500 students, this condition puts an added burden on the student body as well as the administration offices.
